

Advanced Personal Monitoring and Alert System for Seniors and their Caregivers

The only system offering automatic, 24/7 health monitoring and advanced fall detection, myHalo promotes independent living for seniors - and peace of mind for the people who love them.

The myHalo system includes the myHalo Chest Strap Transmitter, a Home Gateway appliance, the Caregiver's web-based monitoring portal and 24/7 professional alert response.

System Features include:

- No computer required; Standard phone line
- Non-invasive
- 24/7 monitoring
- Advanced fall detection
- Wireless (with roaming)
- Gateway accommodates multiple users
- Easy-to-use, remote Web interface
- Configurable caregiver events
- Automatic e-mail/text message updates
- 128-bit encrypted delivery for privacy
- Strap Removal/user compliance
- Activities of Daily Living (ADL)

Halo System Monitors

- Falls
- Heart rate and heart rate variability
- Skin temperature
- Activity (calorie) expenditure
- Number of daily steps
- Sleep/wake patterns

Technical

Power output: 1mW max
Operating frequency: 2400 - 2483.5 MHz
Heart rate accuracy: ± 4 bpm, under steady state conditions

The myHalo system maximizes user independence. The comfortable and light-weight chest strap is easy to use and allows out-of-the house recording for up to 48 hours.

Contact

Halo MarketLink
Phone: (888) 205-3148
halosales@mtsl.com

